AL PERRY LEAVES HIS HOME COUNTY ON SOLDIER DUTY

Victim of Night Riders Got Evidence Against Them and Joined Militia.

Hopes For Conviction of Leaders of Band.

OTHERWISE MAY NOT GO BACK

Al Perry, one of the men whipped in Calloway, and Clarence Dyer, an important witness in the night rider prosecutions, were in Paducah today in company with the soldiers under Major Bassett en route to Trigg county. Both are now soldiers and members of Company H, of Middleboro, under Captain Glens.

Mr. Perry, who is an intelligent looking farmer, was the center of attraction during his stay in Paducah and a number of people who listened to his story of the visitation by night riders and his "punishment," as it was called by a Murray paper.

While here Mr. Perry visited the office of The Sun and to the reporters told how he was whipped and other indignities were heaped upon him. "I did not even suspect night riders when my wife called me the night they came," said Mr. Perry.

"When I opened the door about 25 guns were leveled at my head and I was told to 'come out.' I asked to be allowed to dress, but they refused and forced me into the yard in my night clothes. Two men took hold of me and one man whipped me with a big stick. 'Some one, who must have sympathized with me, interfered with the men doing the whipping, as each blow was struck, and protected me to some extent, the only blow from which I received full force being on the hand, which split the skin.'

When asked regarding his feeling toward the night riders he said: "If they will send some of the leaders to the penitentiary I will be satisfied, but should the court fail I may 'hunt squirrels' a right smart next fall," was all he would say.

Mr. Perry said of the 200 who visited him he did not recognize any but Joe Bell, who was captain of the band, and were the cross scarf insignia, the others wearing a scarf over one shoulder only. He did not know Bell the night of the visitation, but since he met him at Murray he said he knows he was the captain by his make up and voice.

Macon Champion, the most important of the confessed night riders, told his story at the solicitation of Mr. Perry, who suspected he was in the raid by his actions next day. Champion is but 18 years old. He was attempting to get away into Trigg county when Mr. Perry got hold of him and prevailed upon him to tell what he knew. They walked to Judge Wells' house, reaching there at 2 o'clock in the morning.

Clarence Dyer, the other witness with the soldiers, was forced to take the oath and was notified to meet the mob on the night of the Perry raid, but did not do so.

Both the men are afraid to go to their homes in the east side of Calloway now, but declare that should convictions result they would not be in fear of molestation.

Soldiers Arrive.

Major E. B. Bassett and Lieutenants Wilburn and Back arrived here last night with 17 privates of Companies F and H and left at noon today on the steamer Butterfor for Rock castle, Trigg county, where they will go into camp. Captain Glens and 15 men of the same companies were ordered to Calloway county. They are mounted and it is supposed they will do patrol duty in the night rider infested precincts of Calloway county again. The shifting and movement of the troop is unexplained by the commanding officers.

While here the soldier boys, most of whom have been in the service in Calloway several weeks, seemed to enjoy themselves immensely. Last night many of them attended the carnival. It is believed they will be in Trigg county several months.

JUDGE GREER'S FAMILY

Judge W. D. Greer, who is dangerously ill at his home, 321 North Fifth street, from a complication of diseases, is unimproved. Miss Addie Greer, his daughter, arrived last night from Atchison, Kas., and Mrs. Ed Atkins, a daughter, will arrive tonight from Enid, Okla.

Well Known Illinois Central Men Promoted to Officer Central of Georgia, the Latest Acquisition

McCourt, Egan and McCabe Go Up in Order and Clarence Knowles Gets Important Berth With Southern Line.

The acquisition of the Georgia Central to the Illinois Central lines will, it is said, cause a general change with some of the high officials of the Illinois Central. It is semi-officially given out that H. M. McCourt, at present superintendent of southern lines of the Illinois Central, will be made general manager of the newly acquired Georgia Central lines; while Superintendent Egan, of the Louisville division, will succeed Mr. McCourt. Assistant Superintendent McCabe will succeed Mr. Egan on the Louisville division.

Another promotion of local interest is that of Clarence Knowles, a Paducah boy, who is at present assistant foreman of the water supply of the entire system of the Illinois Central, who will be made general foreman of the water supply of the new line.

All the officials are well known in Paducah and their friends will be glad of their promotions.

COUNTY SCHOOLS

The number of children of school age in the county outside of Paducah will be about up to the average, according to Superintendent Billington, who has received the reports of the census enumerators from most of the districts. Several of the districts reporting late, shows a falling off. The complete report is expected this week. The superintendent will hold examinations Saturday for the twenty-five applicants for county school diplomas. The successful ones are under certain conditions entitled to a course in the state normal school at Bowling Green.

FIENDISH MURDERESS BURIES BODIES AT HER HOME NEAR LA PORTE, INDIANA

Believed That People Made Away With in Chicago Are Taken There in Trunks For Concealment.

La Porte, Ind., May 6.—Three more graves supposed to contain bodies of murdered victims were found on Mrs. Belle Guinness' place early today. Sheriff's deputies are digging. The belief is general that Mrs. Guinness is not dead and that another body has been substituted for her and that she is probably on route to Norway. The head to the body supposed to be Mrs. Guinness is missing. The sheriff believes some of the bodies already found were shipped from Chicago, where people were murdered.

La Porte, Ind., May 6.—With seven bodies already unearthed, Sheriff Smutizer and Coroner Mack will continue their search for other alleged victims of Mrs. Belle Guinness, who, to all indications, was one of the most fiendish murderesses of the century and who was recently killed with her three children through the burning of her country home, one mile north-east of La Porte.

The sixth body was discovered on the Guinness farm this morning at the side of the two holes dug yesterday, in which five bodies were found. The body was found under cobble stones buried two feet beneath the surface. It evidently was buried a year or more.

Of the bodies so far unearthed two have been identified. They are those of Andrew Helgelein, a wealthy bachelor of Mansfield, S. D., and Miss Jennie Olsen, the 11-year-old step-daughter of Mrs. Guinness. The other four bodies are so badly decomposed as to make identification impossible. Evidences of several more bodies were found at noon in a rubbish heap near where the sixth body was unearthed. A human rib and several small bones were found in the loose ground.

More Evidence. Mrs. Christoferson, a neighbor of Mrs. Guinness, told the sheriff today that three men, who lived at the Guinness home within the last year had disappeared. Officers suspect foul play in each case. Mrs. Guinness told her neighbor each had answered a matrimonial advertisement; but she was not pleased with them. Officers hope to have Ray Lamphere confess shortly. He is said to have admitted running from Guinness' farm shortly after the fire started.

NEW MARSHAL FOR METROPOLIS WAS CHOSEN BY MAYOR

Metropolis, Ill., May 6. (Special.)—William Wiant, formerly night police, is marshal of Metropolis, winning out over J. L. Munal by the vote of the mayor. The council stood deadlocked four to four, when the mayor cast the deciding vote. Marshal Munal has been in office four years, defeating Police Officer Wiant. The council was divided along the factional lines developed in the recent local option fight. The anti-saloon forces, who won the election, were behind Wiant. Both officers made good records in the police force.

CAN'T ADJOURN

Springfield, Ill., May 6.—Both houses of the general assembly are in a deadlock over the sine die adjournment. The senate voted to adjourn Saturday, but the house refused to act. Talk of having the governor prorogue the assembly is heard.

TOM EVITTS PROSPECTS

Letters have been received by friends of Thomas Evitts, former city jailer, that he will locate in Oklahoma. Mr. Evitts went on a prospecting trip two weeks ago, and liked the country so well he will remain. He has secured a position, but has not decided definitely in what part of the new state he will locate. Since retiring from public office Mr. Evitts has been residing at "Sunny Ridge," on the Cairo road.

FIENDISH MURDERESS BURIES BODIES AT HER HOME NEAR LA PORTE, INDIANA

The discovery of the bodies was brought about by the appearance of John Helgelein, of Mansfield, S. D., brother of Andrew Helgelein, in La Porte in search of the missing man. With the information that his brother Andrew had come to La Porte to wed Mrs. Guinness and that he had turned over his property to her he became convinced that he had been made a victim of foul play.

Hired Man's Story. While questioning Joseph Maxson, a hired man on the Guinness farm, he learned of the mysterious digging of holes by him, all of them being filled at a later date by Mrs. Guinness.

He led Helgelein and the officers to the spot where holes had been dug, about 150 feet from the house, and there after digging was uncovered the body of Helgelein. The remains were only four feet under the ground and were enclosed in a gunny sack. The legs and arms had been dismembered but were with the trunk. Thirty feet further on the remains of four other persons were found. Lying on top of a mattress were the skeletons of two men and a woman. Underneath the mattress was the body of an 11-year-old girl, said to be Jennie Olsen. All the bodies were taken in charge by the coroner.

Clearing House for Murderers. The discovery of the bodies led an expressman to tell of the delivery of five trunks to the Guinness farm during the last six months and this fact has caused the authorities to work on the theory that the place was a clearing house for murderers. They suspect that wealthy persons, after being lured to Chicago and killed, were packed in these trunks and sent to La Porte and disposed of.

Two Husbands' Tragic Ends. Developments also caused the authorities to recall that the two husbands of Mrs. Guinness had died under suspicious circumstances, both meeting violent deaths. The first, Edward Sorrenson, was insured for $8,500 and the second, Guinness, for $3,500. This insurance was paid over to Mrs. Guinness by the companies.

Lamphere an Accomplice. Ray Lamphere, former hired man of Mrs. Guinness, who was arrested after the woman's house had been destroyed by fire and the bodies of Mrs. Guinness and her three children found in the ruins, was charged with murdering the family. He will now be accused of being an accomplice of Mrs. Guinness in murdering the alleged victims of the La Porte murder. It is believed that Lamphere, angered because Mrs. Guinness refused to

SURVEY OF CANAL FROM PADUCAH TO FLORIDA'S COAST

Recommended by Committee of Congress With $75,000 Appropriation.

Tennessee River System is to be Traversed.

TO SHORTEN ROUTE TO GULF

Washington, May 6.—A favorable report on the Bacon bill, appropriating $75,000 for a survey preliminary to the construction of the Atlantic and Great Western canal designed to connect the Atlantic ocean with all tributaries of the Mississippi river, which has passed the senate, was urged today before the house committee on railways and canals by a delegation from Atlanta, Georgia.

The object of the canal is to connect the food producing states of Illinois, Indiana and Ohio with the labor employing mineral and cotton belts of the south. The canal would have its northern terminus at Cairo, Ill., and its southern end at Apalachicola, Fla., on the Gulf coast.

The route of the proposed canal is the Ohio river to Paducah thence from Paducah up the Tennessee river to Guntersville, Ala., 306 miles; from Guntersville to Gadsden, on the Coosa river by canal 50 miles; from Gadsden down the Coosa river to Wetumka, Ala., 160 miles; up the Tallapoosa and its tributaries within about 60 miles nearest to Columbus and thence a canal from about Marvyn, Ala., 20 miles to the Chattahoochee river at Columbus; thence 55 miles down the Chattahoochee to Apalachicola, Fla.; total distance from Cairo to Apalachicola, 905 miles; from Paducah to Apalachicola, 855 miles.

The route via Tennessee and Chattahoochee rivers by channels and canals, the same in depth as that of the Ohio river, is feasible. The greatest freight-producing regions in the United States, next to the Ohio river country, are the Tennessee and Coosa rivers country and the mountains of coal and iron around Birmingham and Anniston. It is said that at present coal cannot be shipped by rail—350 miles—from Birmingham to New Orleans in competition with coal by barges 2,000 miles from Pittsburgh to New Orleans.

The 50 miles of canal between Guntersville and Gadsden have been surveyed; locks and dams have been built south of Gadsden to within 116 miles of destination at Wetumka. These last distances compose only 260 miles of the whole distance, 855 miles, from Paducah. When in times past in the reports of the United States engineers nearly all of the 855 miles have been strongly recommended for local navigation advantages.

This route is 259 miles shorter to the gulf than the Chicago to New Orleans proposed waterways and the terminus hundreds of miles nearer the Atlantic ocean than is New Orleans. All commerce from New Orleans to Panama must pass Florida to the ocean. The cost is estimated at three-fourths the cost of the Chicago to New Orleans waterway.

Case is Dismissed. Mayfield, Ky., May 6.—Fon Brazier, tried in city court here, was dismissed on a charge of horse stealing. He was alleged to have stolen a horse from a man named Ledford, near Sedalia, Graves county.

Home Burned. The home of Herman Williams, near Rock, Graves county, was struck by lightning and burned, together with his stable and meat house. The loss will be about $2,000.

WEATHER.

RAIN
Showers and cooler this afternoon or tonight. Thursday probably fair. Highest temperature yesterday, 72; lowest today, 63.

Fairbanks men went to the Scottish Rites cathedral next door and held a meeting at which the Taft men were denounced and Bradley, Willson and Holt were endorsed delegates-at-large. In the Taft convention Kinkead was nominated for congress and Col. Morris Belknap and Andrew Cowan were named delegates.

Bed Sheet Bill Passed. Guthrie, Okla., May 6.—The nine-foot bed sheet bill introduced in the house by Speaker Murray and his house whip, George Whitehurst, of Sayre, was passed by the Oklahoma senate following several hours of jocular discussion in which freak amendments were defeated. Bailey By 25,000. Dallas, Tex., May 6.—Returns from county Democratic conventions in Texas yesterday indicate that the majority for Bailey as delegate at large to the national Democratic convention is in excess of 25,000.

Just Clean Money. Bright and shiny coins came under the notice of the detectives yesterday and a search was begun for counterfeiters. Will Mitchell, of 516 South Third street, a pupil in the Lee school, had learned that by cleaning a coin and rubbing mercury on it the money would look like new. All of the boys attending the school became interested, and gave Will Mitchell all their pocket money for the new coins. Police Sergeant Gourdoux heard of the story and made an investigation. The Mitchell boy was found and the truth was learned.

CONTRACTOR AND BOARD DISAGREE

About Sidewalk Work Along Farley Place.

Buildings on Tennessee Street Protrude Over Property Line and Solution is Sought.

PUBLIC WORKS BOARD MEETS

The board of public works refused to accept the work of the curbs, gutters and sidewalks on Farley place, because in front of the residence of Mr. Fred Smith the sidewalk is colored. Mr. George Katterjohn, who was the contractor, said that the sidewalks would be in a few months, and asserted to the board that the inspector of the city was to blame for the bad job. All of the concrete will have to be blown out, and the board offered to accept the work on condition that Mr. Katterjohn repair the work. Mr. Katterjohn stated that he did not know whether he would ever repair the work, and accordingly the board refused to accept the work at all. When repairs are made the board will make another inspection.

Buildings on Tennessee street between Eighth and Ninth streets protrude over the sidewalk two and a half feet, and George Katterjohn, the contractor, asked the board what was the solution. Some of the members discussed putting the sidewalks under the buildings, and giving the owners three years to move the buildings. The owners of property were represented by Thomas Crice, and offered to make agreement with the city that the buildings would be moved in three years. As the discussion advanced the board became in favor of making the owners move the buildings at once, but later left the question with City Engineer Washington and City Solicitor Campbell.

Bad places in the street on Tennessee street between Eleventh and Twelfth streets were ordered repaired. Also the traction company was ordered to scatter the gravel on its tracks on Eleventh street.

Advertising Bids.

Bids will be advertised for on May 12 for the work of grading and graveling Clark street from Tenth street to Brunson avenue. The work of paving Jefferson street and Broadway from Ninth and Eleventh streets will be let May 12. The work has been advertised in three contractors' journals, and will be published in The Sun, the official city paper.

Before starting the work of laying sidewalks on Broadway and the river front, the mayor will be consulted by the board as to where the money will come from. The board wants the improvement, but for financial reasons will go slow on all work.

Charges filed against A. Franke, the sewer inspector, were investigated by Louis Kolb and President Rudy and reported as not sustained.

Reports from the street, light and sewer departments were filed by the board.

H. W. Welkel will dedicate to the city a street fifty feet wide out from Fountain avenue, where a fill will be made. On the plat lots Nos. 5 and 22 will be dedicated to the city.

Bids will be advertised for furnishing the city gravel by the board. They will be taken for furnishing the gravel to any part of the city, and on the north side of Broadway and on the south side of Broadway. The board made an inspection of all the gravel pits around the city.

President Richard Rudy and Messrs. Will Katterjohn and Louis Kolb were present at the meeting yesterday afternoon.

CHINA STIRS.

Our interrogative friend Wu Ting Fang, has ceased asking questions about our affairs long enough to deliver a set speech, showing that he knows something about his own country, and the questions the Chinamen have been asking for a few decades have been followed up with action consistent with the information they acquired.

The three typical reforms in China mentioned by Wu Ting Fang, picture the sleeping giantess throwing off the fetters of centuries of sleep and strengthening her arm and loosing her feet for the work of progress. Opium, culture and opium smoking are both condemned by imperial decree and discouraged by popular sentiment.
The practice of foot-binding is being discontinued, and the military forces of the empire reorganized on a modern basis.

Wu says China will never be an aggressively military force. She is too large and diversified as to population and industry; and her habits of thought through the centuries have directed the popular mind to the cultivation of learning and the arts of peace.

He regards the awakening of China as a sign of permanent peace in the far east. His significant words are: "The moment China becomes strong enough after her awakening to maintain her sovereign rights and protect herself from aggression, the far eastern question will have been solved."

Wu was speaking to friends of China when he said that, and he knows that America's interest lies in the integrity of China and the promotion of friendly trade relations with her. If China is partitioned or divided with "spheres of influence" among Japan and the European nations, the United States will find herself checkmated by preferences extended by each nation to her own shippers in treaty ports.

It is strange that the trained diplomats of Europe proceeded persistently on the theory that China would be partitioned and their patriotic duty consisted in seeing that their own countries received a fair slice of the Chinese sea coast. We have just as persistently stood for the integrity of the empire, and we have been rewarded by seeing China slowly respond to our calls to awake, and our friendly offices appreciated, while Japan has fallen under the suspicion of her yellow kinspeople.

"When China becomes strong enough to protect herself from aggression," Japan will find a mighty power, extending its sea coast the full length of the Japanese archipelago and further, blocking the way of Japan on the Asiatic mainland, and threatening the Island Empire if the peace of the eastern world is disturbed.

China through centuries has maintained her hold on civilization. Japan is just emerging from barbarism, quick to grasp the outward attributes of modern civilization, but in her heart still barbarian. We doubt if Japan has the endurance of her venerable neighbor, China, if she takes on modernism, will adopt the principle and develop in her own way, probably varying greatly from her occidental contemporaries, still China, not imitative.

Wu is right. China awakened will be the arbiter of peace in the Orient.

THE SCHOOL CENSUS.

Superintendent Carnagey is right about keeping lists of school children with which to compare the census from year to year. Everything conspires to defeat the efforts of the city to secure an accurate and complete census. Parents, through misapprehension or by design, often conceal the names of children not in school, and as the census takers are paid by the name, they work all right while it is possible to secure a sufficient number of names each day to pay for the trouble; but most of them will not go back a half mile to get the names of one or two children in a neighborhood they have already canvassed. It would mean only a few cents for the names, whereas it would mean several dollars for the city. With a list to check over and time to do the work, a careful and competent census enumerator could benefit the city hundreds of dollars annually.

OUR NEW FOUNDATIONS.

Everything we have been doing is not in vain, says the Globe-Democrat.
It is reconstructiveness and not destructiveness we have been working.
If we have been tearing down it is only for clearing the ground to rebuild on stronger, wider and more enduring foundations. It is a high financier who says so, and people who take their opinions from high finance, and who have trembled at every Wall street croak's exaggeration of "the madness of the mob," can take new courage. The American people have again demonstrated that they know how to do things better than anybody else. The expert testimony on the point is that of Senior Vice President Brown, of the New York Central railway. He knows what's what in finance and traffic, and has made enough honest money in his time to entitle his opinion to greater weight than that of the film-famers of high finance who have frightened credu-lous people with constant crying of a fear that we have all been going crazy.

"I believe," said the great railway magnate, "that the coming period of prosperity will be greater and more permanent than any in the past, because it will be upon a foundation of civic and commercial integrity and honor such as the country has not recently known." There is the enduring basis of prosperity, a rock of ages upon which to build for all the future. When returning confidence rests upon "civic and commercial integrity and honor," it will have an enduring foundation so strong that nobody can ever say that it can be shaken by the mistakes, or the impulses, or the eccentricities of any one man. This expert opinion is valuable not only for what it says that is to be, but for what it says that has already been. It is, plainly enough, that we had departed too far from the best standards of "civic and commercial honor and integrity." There has been need of investigation, of exposure, of indictment, of prosecution, yes, even of cackling. There has been need of calling evil things by their right names, and of ceasing to regard bunco and flimflam as accomplishments of finance. A high financier, so high as never to have been suspected of being low, assures us now that this foundation of our late prosperity was not secure, and could not be in the nature of things permanent, because it was not dug into the rock of "civic and commercial integrity and honor."

The Strike Situation.

No agreement has been reached by the union carpenters and the contractors, who are members of the builders' association, although conferences are held every morning.
Louis Green, a contractor, signed the agreement this morning.

The worst possible bargain is the exchange of life for a living.

CHAPTER XXXI.

YOU say the last entry is June 7?" asked Barnett as the boat entered the light surf.
Trendon nodded.
"That was the night we saw the last glow and the big burst from the volcano, wasn't it?"
"Right."
"The island would have been badly shaken up."

"Not so violently but that the flagpole stood," said the captain.
"That's true, sir. But there's been a good deal of volcanic gas going. The man's been penned up for four days."
"Give the fellow a chance," growled Trendon. "Air may be all right in the cave. Good water there too. Says so himself. By Slade's account he's a pretty capable citizen when it comes to looking after himself. Wouldn't wonder if we'd find him fit as a fiddle."

"There was no clew to Ives and Mc-Guire?" asked Barnett presently.
"None." It was the captain who answered.

The big grated, and, the tide being high, they waded to the base of the cliff, Barnett carrying his precious explosives aloft in his arms.

"Here's the spot," said the captain.
"See where the water goes in through those crevices."

"Opening at the top, too," said Trendon.

He let out his hollow, roaring Dar-row's name.

"I doubt if you could project your voice far into a cave thus blocked," said Captain Parkinson. "We'll try this."

He drew his revolver and fired. The men listened at the crevices of the rock. No sound came from within.

"Your enterprise, Mr. Barnett," said the commander, with a gesture which turned over the conduct of the affair to the torpedo expert.

Barnett examined the rocks with enthusiasm.

"Looks like moderately easy stuff," he observed. "See how the veins run.
You could almost blow a design to order in that."

"Yes, but how about bringing down the whole cave?"

"Oh, of course, there's always an element of uncertainty when you're dealing with high-explosives," admitted the expert. "But unless I'm mistaken we can chop this out as neat as with an ax."

Dropping his load of cartridges carelessly upon a flat rock which projected from the water, he busied himself in a search along the face of the cliff.

Presently, with an "Ah!" of satisfaction, he climbed toward a hand's breadth of platform where grew a patch of purple flowers.

"Throw me up a knife, somebody,"
he called.

"Take notice," said Trendon good naturedly, "that I'm the botanist of this expedition."

"Oh, you can have the flowers! All I want is what they grow in."

Loosening a handful of the dry soil, he brought it down and laid it with the explosives. Next he called one of the sailors to "boost" him and was soon perched on the flat slant of a huge rock which formed, as it were,
the keystone to the blockade.

"Let's see," he ruminated. "We want a slow charge for this, one that will exert a widespread pressure without much shattering force; the No. 3, I think."

"How is that, Mr. Barnett?" asked the captain, with lively interest.

"You see, sir," returned the demonstrator, perched high like a sculptor at work on some heroic masterpiece,
"what we want is to split off the huge slab. There's a lovely vein running at an angle inward from where I sit. Split that through, and the rock should roll off its own weight away from the entrance. It's held only by the upper projection that runs under the arch here."

"Next programme," commented Trendon, with sardonic skepticism.

"Wait and see," retorted Barnett bitingly, for he was in his element
now. "I'll appoint you my assistant.
Just toss me up that cartridge, the third one on the left."

The surgeon recoiled.

"Supposing you don't catch it?"

"Well, supposing I don't?"

"It's dynamite, isn't it?"

"Something of the same nature.
Joyette, it's called."

Still the surgeon stared at him. Barnett laughed.

"Oh, you've got the high explosives superstition," he said lightly. "Dynamite don't go off as easy as people think. You could drop that stuff from the cliff head without danger. Have I got to come down for it?"

With a wry face Trendon tossed up the package. It was deftly caught.

"Now wait that dirt well. Put it in the canvas bag yonder and send one of the men up with it. I'm going to make a mud pie."

Breaking the package open, he spread the yellow powder in a slightly curving line along the rock. With the mud he capped this over, forming a little arched roof.

"To keep it from blowing away," surmised Trendon.

"No. To make it blow down instead of blowing up."

"Oh, rot!" returned the downright surgeon. "That pound of dirt won't make a shadow of a feather's difference."

"Won't it?" retorted the other. "A surious thing about high explosives. Cu-

BLOCKADED.

Every House in Paducah Should Know How to Resist It.

The back aches because the kidneys are blocked.
Help the kidneys with their work.
The back will ache no more.
Lots of proof that Doan's Kidney Pills do this.

It's the best proof, for it comes from Paducah.

J. A. Houser, 809 Tennessee ave., Paducah, Ky., says: "When I gave a statement for publication in 1900 telling of the great benefit I had received through the use of Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at DuBois Son &

He slid off his perch into the ankle deep water and waded out to the boat.
Here he borrowed for a moment, presently emerging with a box. This he carried gingerly to a convenient rock and opened. First he lifted out some soft padding. A small tin box honeycombed inside came to light. With infinite precaution Barnett picked out an object that looked like a 22 caliber short cartridge, wadded some cotton batten in his hand, set the thing in the wadding, laid it on the rock, carefully returned the small box to the large box and the large box to the boat, took up the cartridge again and waded back to the cliff. They watched him in silence.

BENCH WARRANT AUTHORITY FOR EVITTS' ARREST

The story that the friends of Sam Evitts said they were going to bring suit against Detective William Baker, of Paducah, and Detective F. E.
Miller, of St. Louis, of the Pinkerton agency, for "abduction," is considered slightly by Chief Collins. Evitts was arrested on a bench warrant from Ballard county by Detective Baker and Patrolman James Brennan, and Detective Miller was not present. Detective Baker showed the bench warrant to a reporter this morning and it is signed by William Henderson, clerk of the Ballard county circuit court. Bulger and Evitts are being held in the McCracken county jail solely at the request of their attorney. Chief Collins would have taken them back yesterday morning, but Attorney Hal Corbett said he had not talked with them yet, and they will be taken to Wickliffe probably tomorrow morning.

The statement that the friends of Evitts were denied admittance to the jail and that he was kept in close confinement is denied at the county jail. Only one man has been turned away and that was because he called at the jail after 4 o'clock in the afternoon, and he was told to return the next day. No one is ever admitted to see prisoners after 4 o'clock by the courteous officials. Evitts requested Jailer Eaker to refuse admittance to his friends, as he did not want them to see him in jail, but Jailer Eaker has not heeded Evitts' own request.

TRAINED NURSE

Remarks About Nourishing Food.
"A physician's wife gave me a package of Grape-Nuts one day, with the remark that she was sure I would find the food very beneficial, both for my own use and for my patients. I was particularly attracted to the food, as at that time the weather was very hot and I appreciated the fact that Grape-Nuts requires no cooking."

"The food was deliciously crisp, and most inviting to the appetite. After making use of it twice a day for three or four weeks, I discovered that it was a most wonderful invigorator. I used to suffer greatly from exhaustion, headaches and depression of spirits. My work had been very trying at times and indigestion had set in."

"Now I am always well and ready for any amount of work, have an abundance of active energy, cheerfulness and mental poise. I have proved to my entire satisfaction that this change has been brought about by Grape-Nuts food."

"The fact that it is predigested is a very desirable feature. I have had many remarkable results in feeding Grape-Nuts to my patients, and I can not speak too highly of the food. My friends constantly comment on the change in my appearance. I have gained nine pounds since beginning the use of this food." "There's a reason." Read "The Road to Well-Ville," in packages.

Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.

METHODIST PREACHERS

MET AT BROADWAY CHURCH
The Methodist preachers of Paducah met at the Broadway church, the Rev. J. W. Blackard, presiding elder, presiding.

The reports from the pastors were encouraging and hopeful. The Rev. G. T. Sullivan, of Broadway, stated that the work during the month had been good. Twenty-five new members were received as a result of the revival. Fourteen adults and twelve infants were baptized. Thirty-one members received this month. Raised on church debt $3,300. Outlook is good for future prosperity.

The Rev. T. J. Owen, of Reidland circuit, reported a fine revival in progress at Guthrie avenue, the Rev. E. C. Dees doing the preaching. Twenty professions and eight additions to date to the Methodist church. Good work being done at Reidland and Calvert City in raising the collections and repairing the churches.

The Rev. H. B. Terry, of Third street, reported the Sunday school still holding up its high standard in attendance and interest. Quarterly conference reports are the best for several years. Five new members, making thirty to date. Woman's Home Mission society is doing excellent work and furnishing both parsonage and church with some helpful articles.

The Rev. G. W. Banks, of Trimble street, said the Sunday school is the largest perhaps in the history of the church, 200 being on the roll. Junior and Senior leagues doing fine work. The official board decided unanimously to begin the new church at once on Monroe street and Fountain avenue.

The Rev. J. W. Blackard, presiding elder, reported the entire district in better condition than during the previous three years of his administration. The second round of quarterly meetings, which was completed last Sunday, showed the finances ahead of last year. Several new church buildings going up and others in prospect. Everything is hopeful throughout the district.

The Rev. G. W. Banks made a forcible and instructive talk on the subject, "The Laymen's Movement." Remarks were also made by Drs. Blackard, Sullivan and Terry.

The Rev. T. J. Owen will lead in the discussion next meeting on the subject, "The Preacher's Work and Responsibility."

C. S. LEE IS INJURED BY HORSE STEPPING ON HIM.
Mr. J. S. Lee, the son of C. C. Lee, residing on the Hinkleville road, had two ribs on the left side broken and his face scratched when the horse which he and Charlie Weeks and Charlie Whitehead were driving last night about 10 o'clock near Wallace park, jumped to the side of the road and stepped off an embankment at a culvert about four feet down. The occupants of the buggy were thrown out when the horse went in the ditch and Mr. Lee was stepped on by the horse. The lines were wrapped around his arm and the horse kept on going and dragged Lee for a distance of 20 feet. Mr. Weeks stopped the horse.

DR. FEIST WANTS FREEDOM.
Nashville, Tenn., May 6.—Another chapter in the legal history of the celebrated case of the state vs. Dr. J. Herman Feist was opened this morning in the criminal court, when the attorneys for Dr. Feist made application for bond. The question was not passed on today, but went over till Saturday, when another hot fight for the liberty of Dr. Feist will be waged.

The application for bond will be resisted to the last, as was evidenced this morning by the position taken by Attorney-General F. M. Bess, who asked the court for further time, as the question of bail came up totally unexpected.

The application was made on the ground that Dr. Feist had not been found guilty as charged in the indictment of the murder of Mrs. Rosa Mangrum, and that he is therefore entitled to bail. Decisions of the supreme court were cited in support of the contention of the defendant.

DETECTIVE MOORE REACHED GOLDFIELD LAST NIGHT.

BRYAN WILL LEAD

CHICAGO TRIBUNE POLL OF ENEMY'S COUNTRY.
Shows The Nebraskan Has the Best of It Even in Conservative East.

Washington, D. C., May 6.—The Chicago Tribune's test ballot on the Democratic presidential candidates, so far as it concerns the north Atlantic section, embracing the states of Connecticut, Delaware, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, Vermont and West Virginia, shows the following results on the first choice for president:

Bryan ..... 371
J. A. Johnson ..... 75
Gray ..... 75
Douglas ..... 14
Folk ..... 10
Harmon ..... 9
T. L. Johnson ..... 3
Culberson ..... 2
Daniel ..... 1

Still "Enemy's Country."
This represents the exact situation as given by the ballot sent to active Democratic workers in the twelve northeastern states. There, if anywhere, Mr. Bryan should find a distinct unfriendly sentiment.

It was this section he used to call "the enemy's country," and later comparisons will show that it is still deserving the same name so far as he is concerned.

The summary just given indicates that Mr. Bryan has more votes as first choice for president than all the other candidates put together, but it may be said that his lead in other parts of the country is much larger than this.

Mrs. Edward H. Bringham, 620 Kentucky avenue, will leave Friday to visit Miss Virginia Lockett in Henderson.

KILLS THREE; KILLS SELF.

Troops Called Out to Capture a Horseman.

Washington C. H., Ohio, April 6.—Company M, Fourth regiment, Ohio National Guard, has surrounded a barn on the outskirts of this city, in which Bert Devaney, a horseman, has barricaded himself, after killing a young negro shooting her mother down, and, it is surmised, killing two men—the owner of the barn in which Devaney is hiding and his son.

Devaney had fled after shooting down the girl's mother. The horseman exchanged shots with the posse, and to capture him and to quell a threatened disturbance of negroes, angered at the failure to arrest the white slayer, Sheriff McClain, of Fayette, appealed for the soldiers. Adjutant General Critchfield, of Columbus, ordered out Company M. It now surrounds the barn.

In the barn two bodies apparently of dead men, have been seen by Chief of Police Kerrigan and former Sheriff Phillips. The absence of Shackelford and his son Thomas is explained by this. Devaney is believed to have shot the girl through jealousy. Devaney is a grand circuit driver, with a wife in Darbyville. Fourteen years ago, as village marshal, he shot down Walsh Darlington, when the latter resisted arrest.

Late last night the police entered the barn, where Devaney had made his last stand, and found him dead, he having shot himself through the head. The body of Silas Shackelford who was shot and killed by Devaney, was also found. Shackelford's son was not with his father, as supposed, and is probably alive.

IMPORTANT DECISION

Case of much interest was tried last Tuesday before Judge Emery, where George Ficklin, of this city, was charged with selling intoxicating liquors, and the evidence showed he sold Dr. Fizz, Crema and Vivo, prepared by A. M. Laevison & Co., and the proof all went to show these beverages were non-intoxicating, and the case was dismissed, as no violation of the law could be proven.

The decision of the court will act favorably with the sale of Dr. Fizz, Vivo and Crema, which are prepared and sold by A. M. Laevison & Co., of this city.

TEACHERS WILL GET MORE MONEY

School Board Adds an Average of $2 the Month.

Position of Supervisor of Music Disputed With and Other Changes Are Made.

MUST STAND EXAMINATION.

Teachers' salaries in the city schools were increased an average of a little more than $2 a month at the meeting of the school board last night, and the salaries of principals an average of about $4.50. The total increase per month next year will be $113.63. Teachers' salaries were increased $157 and principals $37.63. The position of supervisor of music, at $55, was dispensed with, and the substitution of new teachers at the minimum salary for old teachers will work a saving of $26 the month.

One vacancy in each of the Washington, Franklin, Lee and McKinley buildings was left unassigned at this time.

Teachers for the next school year were elected last night by the school board. There were several new teachers elected but most of the old teachers were re-elected. A raise in the salary was given to most of the teachers, especially those who have served several years.

Eight resignations were handed the board and they were accepted, most of them to go in to effect at the end of this school year. Those handing in their resignations were Prof. C. H. Shrive, science instructor in the high school; Prof. C. A. Peratt, a teacher in the high school; Elizabeth Daugherty, seventh and eighth grade teacher at Washington school; Mable C. Mitchell, fifth grade teacher at Washington school; Jessie Cloys, fifth grade teacher at Lee school; May Ellis, sixth grade teacher at Franklin school; Alice Hawley, first grade teacher at Franklin school, and Helen McBroom, fourth grade teacher at McKinley school.

Members of the Cadet class, taught by Prof. J. A. Carnagey, were elected to fill the vacancies made by several of the teachers resigning. Those of the Cadet class assigned to schools were Frances Clark, Inez Bell, Claire Winston, Ethel Hawkins, this leaves the schools without any substitute teachers. Professor Carnagey expects several of the girls graduating in this year's class to apply for the position as a substitute teacher.

The teachers elected for the ensuing year were recommended by the committee on teachers and course of study, comprised of Hills, Kelly and Clements, and they were elected unanimously by the school board.

The salary of Superintendent of Buildings Fred Hoyer was increased $5, making his salary $50 the month for 12 months in the year. Mr. Hoyer was re-elected to that position and was given a vote of thanks by the board for his good and faithful service he has heretofore shown. Mr. Hoyer thanked the board for his election and the appreciation of his work, and assured them that he would continue his good work.

Physical Examination.

A communication from Dr. O. W. Rash, of Owensboro, a member of the board of examiners of that city, was read, in regard to the cost of an examination that the teachers are compelled to undergo and the purpose of the examination and what sort of examiners should be chosen. The examination fee in his home town is $1.50, and the purpose is to find out whether the teacher has any disease that is contagious, especially consumption. He advised that a woman physician be appointed as one of the examiners. The board adopted the rule that all teachers when employed must show a certificate that he or she has been examined within the year, otherwise they are subject to an examination at a cost not to exceed $2, at their own expense. Drs. Della Caldwell, J. T. Reddick and Vernon Blythe were appointed examiners for one year.

Fire Protection.

Fire Chief James Wood submitted to the board a written statement in details how the public schools should be guarded against a fire. He first spoke of the fire escapes and asked that all fire escapes be put up immediately, and that the engine rooms, where most fires originate, have some sort of a fire proof substance put on the walls and the ceiling of this room and that new buildings have the engine room in a separate building. The chief suggested that chemicals and some kind of a water system be put in all the buildings for fighting fires. The report was received and filed.

Professor J. A. Carnagey suggested that typewriting and shorthand be studied in the junior and senior years of the high school, and that the pupils taking these studies have their grammar and spelling grades up to a certain per cent. Professor Carnagey also asked that six new Remington typewriters be purchased for the high school. The matter was referred to the committee on course of study.

It was ordered that $15 be paid W. T. Byrd for obtaining the names of 469 children of school age, whom the school enumerators had overlooked. A report from the sanitary committee of the Improvement league of the

YOUTH AND AGE

WERE GUESTS OF CARNIVAL
COMPANY LAST NIGHT.

Confederate Veterans Engage in Interesting Walking Match—Newsies Attend.

Youth and age were well represented at the carnival last night, the carrier boys of The Sun and the Confederate veterans of the city being guests of the management of the Cosmopolitan shows and were royally entertained, the veterans and newsboys being given all the privileges of the carnival grounds.

About 5,000 grand entrance tickets were sold and the big tent was crowded until after midnight with the merrymakers. Every show did a rushing business and a majority of the patrons seemed pleased with the performances given. The six big shows, vaudeville, animal show, Lilliputian theater, Country Circus and Old Plantation were well patronized, while the freak exhibits were crowded all night. The management will have sawdust hauled today and spread along the route of the promenade today. The heavy storm Monday night damaged some of the concession tents and the canvass men and laborers were kept busy yesterday putting things back in order.

The big success of last night will undoubtedly be repeated tonight. Excursions into the city will bring a large number of visitors.

The prize for the fastest walking old soldier was won by J. M. Hudson with J. W. Sullivan a close second.
Louis Riecke, Sr., Dr. Murrell, Col.
Whitfield, Mayor Smith and Race Dippie acted as judges of the contest.

Tonight is the "Merry Widow" hat contest at the carnival. Two merry widow hats will be awarded, one to the woman wearing the largest hat and the other to the woman wearing the most artistic hat. The awards will be made at 10:40 tonight.

John Sugars.

Word was received here this morning of the sudden death of Capt. John Sugars in Arizona. No details were given beyond the fact that he dropped dead and that the body would be brought here for burial, accompanied by his son, Mr. Arthur Sugars, who was with him at the time. An especially sad feature is that his wife was not with him, being in Paducah, where she had recently come to visit Mrs. Samuel Sugars, 221 Harahan boulevard. She had recently been ill and is quite prostrated by the dreadful shock.

Captain Sugars formerly lived in Paducah and was a conductor on the N. C. & St. L. road, running out of Paducah. He was affable and popular and made many warm friends here. He left Paducah some years ago going west for his health and located in Needles, Cal., where the family lived some time, later going to Arizona to reside. He was a conductor on one of the Arizona roads at the time of his death. Besides his wife and son, he leaves an only brother, Captain Samuel Sugars, of this city. Mr. Arthur Sugars was married several years ago to Miss Carrie Grace, of Paducah.

No arrangements as to the funeral have been made yet.

Straightest of all the rivers in the world is the Lena of Northern Siberia.
It runs for nearly 800 miles with hardly a curve.

The ferryboat Betty Owen, which is now in use was named in honor of Mrs. Betty Owen, the mother of Captain James Owen.

Captain James Owen was active in the river business till about 10 years ago when his brother, Captain Robert Owen, took his place. Captain James Owen has not been strong for several years, but he was able to be around and do light work. Up to last Thursday he made it his duty to go down street in the mornings and visit the postoffice for the Betty Owen. Last Thursday morning the Captain was taken seriously ill with kidney trouble, which caused his death yesterday. He was a member of the Masonic lodge. He had license first of pilot and master, second that of engineer and then captain's license.

Three members of the immediate family survive Captain Owen: Mrs. Angelina Owen Woolfolk, of 721 Broadway, Captain Robert Owen and Mr. Bracket Owen. Mrs. Henry Owen, of 822 Jefferson street, is a sister-in-law. Mrs. Wynn Tully a niece, Mrs. Lizzie Quick, Mrs. Minnie Rankin, Mrs. Lemuel Ogilvie, Miss Fannie Woolfolk, little Anna Bracket Owen, Mrs. Will Cochran and Miss May Owen are nieces of Captain Owen. Mr. Tarbell Laurie, Dr. Will Owen and Harry Owen are nephews.

Captain James Owen was one of a family of ten children, five girls and five boys: Albina, Angelina, Marcella, Aurelia, Gornelia, Adolphus, Robert, James, Henry and Bracket. Of this family there was not a one who ever lived outside the city of Paducah. The Owen family is one of the oldest and best known in western Kentucky. Captain Valentine Owen was one of the settlers of Paducah and lived in Paducah all his life.

PLANS ESCAPE

WOULD HAVE THE GOVERNMENT EMULATE MOUND BUILDERS.

Wallace Says Human Beings and Live Stock Would Have Place of Refuge.

Washington, May 6.—Representative Wallace, of Arkansas, would have the government emulate the aboriginal mound builders. Their scheme for the protection of human and animal life, as well as property, by building immense mounds, to which the people could flee in time of flood, appeals, to the Arkansas statesman as a good thing to follow in the long stretches of lowlands along the Mississippi river between the mouth of the Ohio and the head of the passes.

Bill Introduced in Congress.

He accordingly introduced a bill with a long preamble reciting the conditions, which were similar to those that confronted the mound builders, and providing for the expenditure of $50,000 by the secretary of war on a similar enterprise as an experiment. He proposes that the mounds be built between the river and the levees already constructed, of sufficient size and height to afford a safe refuge for human beings and live stock in seasons of overflow.

TAFT PACIFICATOR

Big Secretary En Route to Panama to Prevent Revolution.

Panama, May 6.—With regard to the visit of Secretary Taft to Panama Ricardo Arias, Secretary of Foreign Relations, said today:

"I believe that Secretary Taft's visit here signifies that friendly desire of the United States to settle once for all the differences now existing between Panama and the United States and between Panama and Colombia."

It is the general opinion here, however, that in addition to paying the way as far as possible for adequate treaties between the countries, Secretary Taft will also endeavor by friendly advice to prevent during the next presidential election in Panama a repetition of such events as led to the occupation of Cuba by the United States. The campaign already has given evidences of passion, some of the political factions showing considerable bitterness, and nobody doubts, as things are today, that the elections will result in serious disturbances throughout the isthmus.

It is felt here that the Government at Washington has some apprehension on this score, and it is currently reported that a Government agent has recently been making a secret visit to various points in this country for the purpose of investigating the true political situation.

Electric Bitters is the best spring medicine ever sold over a druggist's counter; as a blood purifier it is unequalled. 50c. at all druggists.
